We're Michelle & Ruzanna (making up MiRu in MiRuMakes) and our aim is to produce Malaysian themed cross-stitch designs for stitchers around the world, especially our fellow Malaysians. We both learned cross-stitch when we were younger and we returned to this hobby later in our adult life. We met through a local cross-stitch group, Cross-stitch Malaysia, run by Ruzanna and our shared aim drove us to start our own design house.

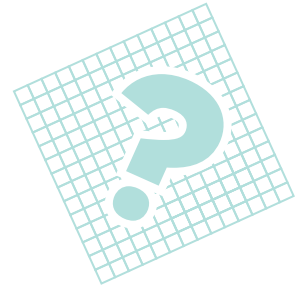

For the SP Club SAL, we decided to represent Malaysia with our national animal, which is the majestic tiger! In Malaysia, we call him Harimau. It also happens that Michelle was born in the Year of the Tiger, so it seems apt. Here's our take on it and we would be so honoured to have a part of our heritage included in such a wonderful project!
