Hi, I am Crystal . I am a studio photographer in the fall taking school photos. When I am not photographing, I am a full time mom to Jade (12 years old) Jade and Drew (9 years old). We have a cat named Swifty, and a rabbit named Brownie. If I am not busy enough I am a 4-H leader, leading the sewing, photography, and scrap booking projects. I started my cross stitching in the early 90s when I was a 4-H member.

I was so happy to find stitch people in 2016. I could finally have portraits of my family that they wouldn't sit for in a photograph. Stitch People has given me the confidence to design my own patterns. Which I have done with my gnome stitches. A couple of years ago my Aunt gave me a gnome and I became obsessed with gnomes. They are believed to be a symbol of good luck and provide protection of buried treasure or minerals in the ground.
