In the perfect world people will never grow up at heart - they will stay kids forever. The creative type who love to play, laugh and always see the glass half full. I love bright colours, magic and rainbows, so naturally unicorns are my favourite animals (a close second to dogs!). My sister in law gifted me a couch cushion that said "Always be yourself, unless you can be a unicorn. Then always be a unicorn". This popular saying quickly became my favourite, and I try to live by it. It seems appropriate that I wanted to create my own unicorn cross stitch pattern! The colours provided are the ones I used for the samples, but it is 100% customizable :)

This is suitable for any occasion; it can be included as a detail in a bigger pattern but it also works well as a stand-alone. I plan to incorporate this pattern in a few family gifts - I have baby nieces who will go bananas over the unicorn!! I'll keep the STC updated on my progress :)
