I absolutely love crafting. Cross stitching is my happy place since childhood thanks to my mom who introduced me embroidery and how to read instructions. I was fascinated and taught myself how to cross stitch. Found Stitch People when I was looking for ideas on how to stitch portraits and swooned with the examples found in the 2nd edition.

When looking for ideas to enter in the SAL, I was just returning from a trip to my favorite island, Puerto Rico! The design featured is my take of the famous El Morro's Garrita in Old San Juan. It sits on the edge of the Atlantic with the most amazing views. We've had tours, picnics and flown kites on the lawn. I hope you enjoy stitching as much I love visiting this place. My design is dedicated to my mom, Gloria a native Puertorrican.
