Hi, My name is Andrea and I am a lover of many things—my family, my cats, my needle and floss, the sun and the waves, and basically anything that makes me smile. I have always been a crafter, and cross stitch has been my main craft (again) for the last 5 years or so. I work on all kinds of projects from tiny cards to monster, full coverage pieces. I like to have multiple works in progress at all times so I have lots of fun and different choices.

My icon for the stitch along is our view of the ocean when we are at our favorite beach, San Buenaventura. I love the blue sky above and the Channel Islands in the distance. The beautiful blue ocean changing into foamy break waters that crash on the sparkly sand just fills my soul. Dennis and I watch the weather all the time just so we can see when the next day is that we get to make that hour drive to the shore. I hope you enjoy my little piece of happiness and that it makes you smile too!
