A fellow stitcher at heart! I'm currently living in Canada in the limestone city of Kingston! It's a big university town and very historic. My mom taught me to cross stitch when I was young and then I picked up the hobby again back in 2020 and I've been stitching ever since! I picked this super fun design to be able to add a glow-in-the-dark element! If you don't have access to the E940, DMC 10 is the perfect glowy green! :)
