Hi! I'm an Osteopathic Family Medicine physician practicing in a rural area. I designed my stitch to bring awareness to Osteopathic Medicine as I've found many people don't know the difference between a D.O. and an M.D.

Did you know that both types of doctors receive equal training and licensure to care for patients, but D.O.s also receive additional training in the musculoskeletal system and can provide hands-on treatment to patients to help with a wide range of conditions!
